

Spread the Net Community Service 2009/2010 Tracking Sheet

By participating in Spread the Net Student Challenge fundraising activities at your school, you may be eligible for earning community service hours. Please contact your teacher or guidance department to find out more. This timesheet is a tool you can use to help track your activities and hours. Please be sure that you get your participation approved and verified by an authorized supervisor (eg. teacher as required). When your Spread the Net activities have been completed, please do not submit this form to UNICEF or The Belinda Stronach Foundation; instead use it for your own community service hours process.
